Banzai!

Banzai Classroom Financial Education Program

BMI Federal Credit Union is proud to be a sponsor of the Banzai program and to support your students' financial wellness. We hope that you have found this financial literacy program to be an added value to your curriculum and will share Banzai with your colleagues who may also be looking for an exceptional online learning tool.

Classroom Presentations

Interested in a financial education presentation for your classroom? Reach out to Terri Gregoroff to discuss how BMI Federal Credit Union can meet your needs.

Check Out Our Video Series

We are excited to introduce our new Financial Education Basics video series. Our collection of 12 videos makes learning concepts, like Building a Budget and understanding your credit score, easy to grasp. Each video is between 2 - 4 minutes in length and tackles complex financial topics in an entertaining way.

New Youth Webinar! Free and Open to the Public

We are excited to introduce our new webinar for teens and young adults. Banking on Your Own: Getting Started with Savings, Checking, and Credit. This webinar is part of our free community webinar series. Students will learn the steps needed to build good money skills. It starts with opening your first account and building good financial habits. We will cover everything from Savings Accounts, Checking Accounts, to why and how to build credit.
