

Board of Directors Election

In accordance with the BMI Federal Credit Union® bylaws, each year a Nominating Committee recommends a slate of candidates to fill all Board of Directors openings. The Committee interviews qualified candidates and all selected nominees must be willing to unselfishly volunteer their time and talent. BMI Federal Credit Union Directors will meet an average of two times per month, without pay, for Board and Committee meetings. This year, there are three open positions serving a term of three years.

Kay Cooke, a credit union member for over 37 years, retired from Worthington Industries as the Director of Benefits. Kay served on the Board of Worthington Industries Credit Union for 26 years, and has been a BMI FCU Board volunteer since the merging of Worthington Industries Credit Union. Kay earned her Business degree from the University of Dayton. She is an Emeritus Board Member for Goodwill Columbus.

Shawn Richard, Vice President of Human Resources for Palmer-Donavin Manufacturing Company, has been a credit union member for 15 years. Shawn has served as an Associate Director on the BMI FCU Board since 2013. Shawn holds a BS in Accounting from Franklin University and a Master of Labor and Human Resources (MLHR) from The Ohio State University. He previously served as a Board Member for the Center of Vocational Alternatives (COVA) for four years.

Sarah Musser, Manager, Financial Planning and Analysis at Cardinal Health, has served on the BMI FCU Supervisory Committee for nearly four years. Sarah holds a BS in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting from Shawnee State University and Masters of Accounting from The Ohio State University.
