BMI Federal Credit Union Was Awarded This Year's Charles B. Jenkins Legacy Award by Employment For Seniors

Columbus, OH (July 29, 2021) - BMI Federal Credit Union was recently recognized as this year's Charles B. Jenkins Legacy Award winner by the Employment For Seniors agency at the 2021 Legacy Awards Program. The 2021 Legacy Awards Program is an annual fundraising event hosted by the Employment For Seniors agency in Columbus, Ohio. This event included a panel of guests to discuss the latest updates on the important topic of mature worker issues, as well as to honor those who have demonstrated unwavering support of mature job seekers and residents in the region. BMI Federal Credit Union was recognized with the award because of their outstanding and dedicated service to serving seniors in central Ohio, and additionally because of their long history of support and contributions to the Employment For Seniors Agency.

"It is an honor to be recognized for serving and supporting the senior members in our community," says Vice President of Business and Community Development, Sarah Borland. "We consider this award a testament to our devotion to make banking personal, and we look forward to many years of service."
