BMI Federal Credit Union Received Grant Funding Through the Ohio Credit Union Foundation

Dublin, OH (October 13, 2021) – BMI Federal Credit Union recently received funding through a grant from the Ohio Credit Union Foundation. This grant will be used to help fund a Financial Fitness Boot Camp for the Women’s Empowerment Program (WEP). The WEP is an existing program offered through North Community Counseling Centers (NCCC), a non-profit mental health and substance use treatment agency. Through NCCC, WEP helps at risk women gain the education and support they need to overcome barriers and manage challenges on their journey to recovery and achieving independence.

The Financial Fitness Boot Camp series, created by BMI Federal Credit Union, is designed specifically to meet the needs and interests of the WEP participants and their NCCC Case Managers, with the goal of increasing financial literacy and improving financial wellness. The women who come through the program will be better equipped to manage their personal finances as they move towards achieving independence. The knowledge gained by the Case Managers will help equip them to better support the women in overcoming obstacles.

“We are so grateful to have been given grant funding from the Ohio Credit Union Foundation in order to financially serve the women and Case Managers from WEP and NCCC through our Financial Fitness Boot Camp, says Vice President of Business and Community Development, Sarah Borland. This grant is a huge opportunity and a step in the right direction to help improve the financial lives of the women in the WEP and beyond.”
