BMI FEDERAL CREDIT UNION TEACHES CHILDREN THE VALUE OF MONEY
Why Money Matters

Dublin, OH (July 13, 2017) – BMI Federal Credit Union hosted a Finances 101 game as part of the Dublin Chamber of Commerce’s iCare, iServe, iLead summer camp for middle school youth. In a game that was similar to a big interactive game of Life, children were given a job, a salary and were responsible for paying one month’s worth of bills. Their bills included every day expenses such as food, car payments and health insurance. “Kids are really surprised to learn how many bills adults have to pay,” says Nancy Sullivan Graf, BMI Federal Credit Union’s Financial Education Manager, “It’s just a fun way to teach kids how to plan for spending and saving.”
